Part III REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art of record does not teach, disclose, or suggest the claimed limitations of (in combination with all other limitations in the claim), judging whether a print based on the order information is a target of automatic printing for which the confirmation of the content of the order information by an operator is not necessary or a manual printing for which the confirmation of the content of the order information by an operator is necessary in accordance with the content of the order information; issuing a printing instruction to the printing means to carry out printing in the case whether the print has been judged to be the target of automatic printing based on the order information; and suspending the printing instruction to the printing means until a predetermined printing instruction is issued, in the case where the print has been judged to be the target of manual printing as claimed in claim 1. Similar features are claimed in claims 5, 9, and 14-16. Therefore claims 5, 9, and 14-16 are allowable for the same reasons.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
